Foreword

TO REMEMBER

Down through the years
the hands that care of parents, friends, with
fond memories of the past.

Four years of college
were hands out-stretched,
of those we knew
to lead us on our way.

Now as we part
may each and every
a friendship warm and dear.

DR. LAURENCE LOCKE DOGGETT, President Emeritus
Born — December 22, 1864; Died — November 13, 1957

A man of unlimited vision and ceaseless energy, he was a loved and respected citizen of the world. As the first full time President (August 1, 1896), and for a period of forty years (June 1936), he selected and inspired a dedicated faculty; financed, organized and developed a school for Christian leadership and service. By his example and untiring leadership "visioned men came thronging" to and from his beloved Springfield to influence the lives of youth around the world . . . South America, Canada, Mexico, Europe, Africa, Near and Far East, Phillipines, Australia, and New Zealand.

"The echoes of the past lie in his brain, the sunrise of the future shines upon his face."

DEDICATION

Ossie Solem — a man, a coach dedicated — dedicated to football and its ideals of good sportsmanship, clean living, honesty, and high morals. It is to this man that we take pride in dedicating the 1958 MASSASOIT.

Coach Solem has served as an inspiration to students for almost a half century. In his chosen field he is a master among masters. At the University of Minnesota where he did his undergraduate work in law, he was also considered to be a great football player. This was to be the stepping stone for a spectacular career filled with success, awards and rewards, more than enough to last a lifetime.

Upon graduation he took a coaching assignment with the Minneapolis Marines which lasted from 1915 to 1917. A two year tour with Uncle Sam in World War I temporarily interrupted his new-found coaching career. Upon discharge from the Army, Coach Solem resumed his chosen profession at Luther College in 1920. Two years later Ossie was found instilling his high ideals among the students and faculty at Drake University. While at Drake he gathered further prestige, respect, and admiration from those with whom he came in contact.

Ten years after joining the staff at Drake, he was asked to take the helm of Athletic Director, Physical Education Director, and football coach at the University of Iowa. After filling the key slot at Iowa from 1932 to 1936, Ossie then ventured to Syracuse University. Syracuse today is proud to have had the privilege of association with Ossie Solem, a man among men.

In 1946 Coach Ossie Solem walked onto the Springfield College Campus. At this time, Springfield College did not realize the influence that Ossie was to have on its campus community. Today we know that a man of his caliber can not pass us by without some of his personality rubbing off. Not only are we proud of his feats as evident on the football field, but we are all proud of Ossie because of what he represents. We can read in books about the high ideals of honesty, integrity, loyalty, and good sportsmanship, but for a living example we turn to Coach Ossie Solem. Springfield College is not the only one to recognize these ideals which he represents. This was proven in 1956 by a testimonial dinner given in his honor. Many of his former colleagues, players, and friends attended this momentous occasion to pay tribute to a wonderful man. Recently another tribute was paid to Ossie, one which could be called the apex of a brilliant career, that of being selected as a prominent member of the Football Hall of Fame.

Words are but poor vehicles of expression when referring to a man who has given so much and requested so little in return. How is it possible to explain the influence he has had on so many people throughout the world? Can we do justice in so limited a space to such a man? No, we can not.

All we can say is that the Class of 1959 is honored to have the opportunity to dedicate this book to our own Head Football Coach and Professor of Physical Education, Ossie Solem.

President's Message

To the Class of 1958:

Greetings and congratulations from one who, though himself only a "freshman" at Springfield College, has come quickly and emphatically to appreciate the competence, purposefulness, and splendid motivation of the members of the class now graduating.

You go forth into a world of rapid and revolutionary change. New and heavy responsibilities have devolved upon leaders and peoples in all countries. What a challenge confronts you! You have the opportunity and the privilege to devote your talents to the service of mankind at a critical juncture in history when the central problem is one of human relationships.

I am confident that you will use the training acquired here to good advantage; that you will not count your education as finished, but only as well begun; that the Springfield heritage which has come into your hands and hearts will be transmitted and enhanced through your lives of service.

My best wishes go with you!

Mr. Archie Allen, Advisor

TO THE CLASS OF 1958:

It has been a pleasure to have been able to work hand in hand with such a fine group as the Class of 1958. This class has been blessed with four years of excellent officers, committee heads, and committees. True, in many cases that the work was done by the same hard working group, the overall success of the class has been one of all-around cooperation. This has been a class of many novel and original ideas, many of which were carried out to a successful end.

To all those who have worked so enthusiastically, congratulations for a job well done; your efforts have not gone unnoticed nor unrewarded. To the entire class I wish lots of luck and success in your fields of endeavor.

Sincerely,
ARCHIE ALLEN
Advisor to the Class of 1958

STUDENT COUNCIL

The seventeen member board, known as the Student Council, is Springfield's answer to democracy. This year under the able direction of Michael Achille, the Student Council, despite minor set-backs, has once again proved to the student body, faculty and administration that these three areas can work harmoniously, sharing responsibility and responding to the needs of the college.

The Annual Work Day, the Student Assessment Referendum, and Parents' Day, were just a few of the major events sponsored by the Student governing body. The success of these events, as well as the many unknown but necessary projects completed by the council, shows that this body is striving constantly to actualize college ideals.

S.A.B. is composed of students elected during the all-campus elections held in the Spring, and of faculty members appointed by the Dean of the College. There are ten elected students; three from the Sophomore Class, three from the Junior Class, three from the Senior Class and one from the Graduate Class. Three faculty members are representatives.

SYNCHRONIZED SWIM CLUB

"It looks so easy," you may say as you watch the girls of the Synchronized Swim Club go through a well-coordinated routine. Behind the scenes this energetic and imaginative group of twenty-five girls is working hard to construct their own routines as well as perfect their performances.

Anyone with fundamental swimming skills and the ability to respond to the rhythm of certain musical selections can try out for membership in this organization.

Each year the club presents a water ballet which has been prepared by members of the group. Programs presented for outside organizations as well as participation in campus events are among the activities engaged in by the group.

GRAPPLERS' CLUB

The forty-five members of the Grapplers' Club are engaged in a service which benefits the college, community and club members, the promotion of wrestling in its recreational and competitive forms.

The club raises money through community exhibitions which include not only a display of the skills of wrestling, but also an explanation of techniques plus advantages and values of the sport. Members of the club benefit from these fund-raising activities in two ways, through experience in the exhibitions, and the funds so raised are used to send club members to various tournaments not supported by the college. The club is open to all those interested in the sport, and is not limited to veteran wrestlers.

The Springfield College Women's Gymnastic Club offers all girls interested in gymnastics an opportunity to develop new skills in apparatus technique and graceful precision in dance routines.

The club has put on demonstrations on campus, presented a show in Stoughton, Massachusetts, and highlighted the annual gym exposition at the Coliseum.

With the enthusiasm and cooperation of Miss Betty Wiesner the season proved to be highly successful.

INTRAMURAL COMMITTEE

W. Wright, M. Parker, L. VanPutten

Promoting interest in athletics, specifically for those not engaged in varsity sports, the Intramural Committee provides a variety of inter-class competitions throughout the year.

Fall term saw those interested engaged in cross-country, football, soccer, tennis and golf. During the winter, basketball, volleyball, wrestling and handball were among the scheduled activities. Softball, track, tennis and golf teams were set up during the spring.

The entire committee is composed of representatives from each class whose job it is to plan the games, select captains for the teams and clear up any discrepancies. Under the able guidance of their faculty advisor, Mr. Raymond E. Sparks, and graduate assistant, David Martens, the committee had a successful year.

W S R B

Surmounting many difficulties the campus radio station resumed broadcasting during the winter term. The reorganization period was quite successful and under the direction of Clark Allen, WSRB is once again on the air.

The plans for a campus radio station were originally made for two reasons: first, to provide experience and training for those with interest in radio broadcasting; and second, to provide non-staff students with music, news and sports broad casts for their entertainment. Anyone may become a member of the WSRB staff providing they have a sincere interest in such work and the ability to speak properly and clearly.

With this increase has come a proportional rise in enthusiasm within the club, and applause by both the student body and the Springfield Community. Such outstanding and interestingly unique performances as "Mr. Roberts," "The Lady's Not For Burning" and "Juno and the Paycock" have only served to increase the already overwhelming success of former years.

Besides providing enjoyment through their performances, the club members also learn techniques of costuming, make-up and general management of theatrical performances.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

To promote understanding and appreciation of the views of all students on campus, whether from a foreign country or the United States, is the democratic objective of the Cosmopolitan Club. All foreign students are automatically members of the organization, but any student interested in sharing his ideas and his experiences through friendly associations with others may join.

The Cosmopolitan group takes an active part in college life as well as working primarily to promote a better understanding of the peoples of the world among all its members as well as the entire student body and, indeed, the nation as a whole. "Oriental Nite" and the United Nations Day celebrations were sponsored by this club during 1957. During the winter term, the group was able to visit the United Nations building to further its objective in uniting students from all nations in a common bond of mutual understanding and friendship.

HOSAGAS

The performance of Indian Dances and Rituals for many civic clubs is the main objective of the Hosaga Indians. The Indians try to show through stories, crafts, and the colorful choreography of dance that the American Indian was first a human with human rights, and second, that as a last resort, was a "savage" fighting for what was rightly his. Under the leadership of Chief Rodney Valentine, the Hosagas perform before more than thirty scout groups, YMCA groups, PTA's and church organizations throughout the eastern part of the country. An annual spring vacation trip takes the tribe to areas in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and even into parts of Ohio.

DEBATING CLUB

To stimulate extra curricular interest in public speaking and debating, the Springfield College Public Speaking club, officially known as Beta Epsilon Epsilon Rho, was recently organized by several students.

Plans have been made to have debates on campus as well as with other college debating teams. The club hopes by their enthusiasm to interest the entire student body in public speaking as it is related to enjoyment rather than to work.

Traveling to other schools and inviting them to this campus, furthermore, promotes good social relations between Springfield and nearby colleges. Membership is open to all students interested in speaking and having some ability in this field.

STUDENT WIVES

The association of Student Wives provides an opportunity for all wives of full or part-time students to participate in and become acquainted with the activities of the college. Entertainment and fellowship are the main objectives of the entire membership, which has increased until there are now approximately one hundred and eighty student wives associated with this group.

Besides fellowship with each other, the group performs services on campus with which all students are well acquainted. Home-baked goods are frequently sold in the Administration Building to hungry students who long for "home-cooking" and all-campus movies are sponsored by this club. For two years the student wives have won first prize with their float in the Fall Homecoming Parade.

BAND

Traveling last fall to Amherst and Rhode Island, the members of the band once more displayed their usual musical skill and precision timing. At all home games the band presented many enjoyable routines for the pleasure and amusement of spectators as well as their own personally rewarding experience.

During the winter months, the twenty-five members of the band took to the "great indoors" while providing pep music at the basketball games. The spring months saw the band practicing for convocation programs, Stepping-up Day and the Spring Concert.

Besides their usual campus and community engagements, the Glee Club added to their list of public appearances this year by participating in the Easter Sunday Morning Service at Radio City, and the presentation of a program at the AAHPER convocation in Philadelphia.

Membership in the club is, at present, approximately forty. Ability to sing in a group and carry the responsibilities that are a part of the membership are the only stipulations to joining the Glee Club.

SCOTCHMEN

This group of twelve is a recent off-shoot of the ever-growing Glee Club. The Scotchmen were organized as a part of the larger group, but perform separately and provide a lighter and more varied type of performance than with the program presented by the Glee Club. Under the leadership of Mr. Vickers, this group is becoming more and more popular with both the campus and community.

Like the Glee Club, the Scotchmen perform both on and off campus and form another branch of Springfield's public relations embassy.

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE SINGERS

A recent addition to the musical activities on campus, the Springfield College Singers now has a membership of approximately fifty students and is fast winning a prominent place in campus life. Any student at Springfield College with a genuine interest in music and the ability to sing in a group can become a member of this group. The main objective is to combine men's and women's voices for the entertainment of the public as well as for the performers' pleasure. Working with SCA, the Singers supplied the Springfield Community with a Christmas program well-worth remembering. During the winter, the chorus, in conjunction with the Glee Club, participated in a program at Radio City Music Hall.

BONNIE LASSIES

Recently recognized as a full-fledged campus activity is the women's choral group known as the "Bonnie Lassies." Starting as a small group of girls who sang for their personal enjoyment, the club took on additional members and began providing musical entertainment at many college functions. Now part of the college musical organizations, the "Bonnie Lassies" help to stimulate interest in vocal music on the campus as well as throughout the community by providing entertainment at several civic associations in the Springfield area.

Membership in the group is open to all women students expressing a sincere interest in vocal music and meeting specific audition requirements.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Scholastic achievement and extra-curricular activities form the basis for admission to Kappa Delta, national honorary society. This is one of the highest honors a senior may achieve upon graduation. Selection is based upon voting by the entire Senior Class and approval by faculty members. One of the requirements is an accumulative index of at least 1.7, and other requirements include qualification for graduation in June or August, completion of no less than sixty semester hours at Springfield, together with a minimum of two years' residence and having no academic conditions on record as of January 31.

SIGMA DELTA PSI

America's only athletic fraternity, Sigma Delta Psi, has as its purpose the ideal of promoting physical, mental and moral development of college students.

There are over one hundred and sixty-eight chapters throughout the country in most of the leading colleges and universities. The Springfield College chapter was formed in 1929 and has nearly dominated national awards given to chapters having the most members.

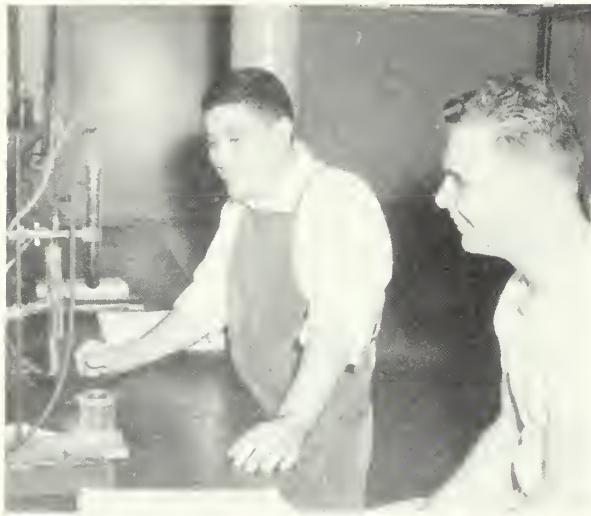

Any member of the Springfield College student body is eligible for membership if he is able to meet the entrance qualifications.

TRADITIONS COMMITTEE

The Traditions Committee, composed of elected members of the sophomore class, met weekly last spring to prepare an adequate traditions program for 1957-1958. After the fall term the committee dissolved, as such, but because of their success the traditions have been upheld by all.

The desire of the committee members is to actively instill a respect for Springfield College Traditions into the Freshman Class.

The Traditions Committee sponsored a get-acquainted dance during Freshmen Week, the cage-ball game and the annual rope pull between the Freshmen and Sophomore Class.

VETERANS' CLUB

The Veterans' Club performs two important functions on campus. It gives student veterans a fellowship association through which they can become an integral part of the college community, and provides helpful information to non-veterans who plan on entering the service.

Through this club, student veterans are able to voice their opinions in national affairs regarding benefits which are available to them.

All veterans on campus are automatically members of this organization and faculty members who are veterans are included in the club as honorary members.

COMMUTERS' CLUB

To help establish friendly relations between the commuting women students and the student body as a whole, the Commuters' Club was organized soon after women were first admitted to Springfield College.

Each year this organization sponsors a party for the newly initiated freshmen commuters who may not have a chance to participate in the regular dormitory functions.

The club acts part-time as a service organization in cooperation with the White Key Society. At present the club membership totals twenty-five women students, but plans are being made to expand and include men commuting students in the total organization.

KAMPUS KOLONY

The organization of the Kampus Kolony is a little known but necessary part of the Springfield College. The forty couples who live on the campus were faced with the problem of providing play areas for the children, uniting their families in common interests, and providing an orderly governmental system for the citizens of the Kolony. The problem has been met and overcome by the couples who, under the direction of their "mayor," have built a play area for the children. They also sponsor welcoming parties for new arrivals, provide social events for those interested and set down rules to which all must heed as any law abiding citizen.

OUTLOOK

Despite the loss of some key linemen, prospects for a successful 1957 football season were good. Returning to play under Coach Ossie Solem was the same backfield that had sparked the Maroons to an undefeated season the year before. Quarterback Les Plumb led the veteran backfield that featured Hugh Mendez and George Redman at the halfback positions and Charlie Feid at fullback. Co-captains Dick MacPherson and Dick Shields along with Al Estey made up the list of returning linemen. Springfield faced a tough nine game slate with five contests on foreign gridirons. The biggest tests were expected from the Yankee Conference elevens of Connecticut, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire.

SEASON

Opening the '57 football season with a bang the Solemmen battled their way to a thrilling 19-14 win over UConn. Junior end Tom Flubacher came off the bench to grab a pair of Plumb tosses and spark the Springfielders to the win at Pratt Field.

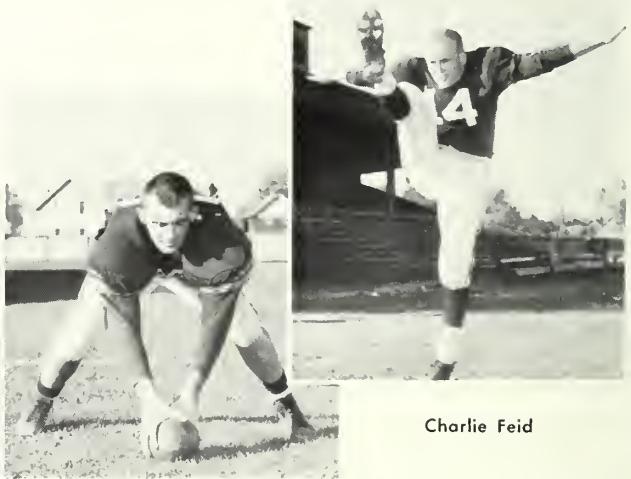

Traveling to Amherst to meet a veteran Jeff squad, the Maroons were handed their first loss after a winning skein of thirteen games. Quarterback Tom Gorman paced the Jeffs to a 33-14 win over the Solemmen. Charlie Feid and Bob Payne scored the SC touchdowns.

Once again Coach Solem went to his bench in order to get some life out of his bogged-down backfield and Gerry Sutherland provided the needed lift as Northeastern bowed 20-13 at Boston. The junior halfback scored two TDs in the second half to make up a 13-0 half time deficit. The big play of the game came when Al Estey grabbed a Plumb pass in the end zone with only 43 seconds left to tally the winning score.

Maroon defense at work.

At Colby the '57 season hit its low point when the White Mules upset the Maroons 6-0. Springfield's only scoring threat was stopped by a fumble inside the ten yard marker.

Back again at Pratt Field the Solem forces had little trouble in beating AIC 20-0. An electrifying 79-yard lateral play brought the first Maroon score and the rival Aces were not in contention after that. Feid scored two SC touchdowns and Bob Karpp tallied the other.

At Rhode Island Springfield's line was at its best and the Maroons upset the Rams 14-0. The home team, beaten only once previously and leading the Yankee Conference, tasted bitter defeat when Les Plumb scored twice on quarterback sneaks.

Homecoming fans saw Plumb fire three TD passes to lead the Alden Streeters to a 28-6 win over New Hampshire. Sterling line play by Dick MacPherson, Al Estey, Bill Babcock, and Joe Woodhead aided in the Maroon win.

George Redman, Charlie Feid, and Les Plumb all scored for SC as the Maroons spoiled Hofstra's perfect season by beating the Dutchman at Long Island 19-7 to conclude the season.

The '57 Maroons, finishing the season with a 5-2 record, grabbed many individual honors. Charlie Feid set a Springfield scoring record with a three-year total of 121 points. QB Plumb raised his total passing yardage to a new SC record of 2,109 yards. The senior signal-caller made the Little All-American second team. To add to these honors, Coach Solem was chosen to football's Hall of Fame. The seniors on this squad never tasted defeat at Pratt field as the Maroons went undefeated at home for the third straight year.

VARSITY SOCCER TEAM

OUTLOOK

Once again Coach Irv Schmid's soccer combination had a host of returning veterans and shaped up as the best team in the area. Leading the list of returnees were co-captains Dick Hungerford and Joe Teixeira. Hungerford at center forward led the Maroons in scoring last season with 17 goals. Also returning in the forward line were Scott Wilson, Jack Loew and Sam Kasinathan.

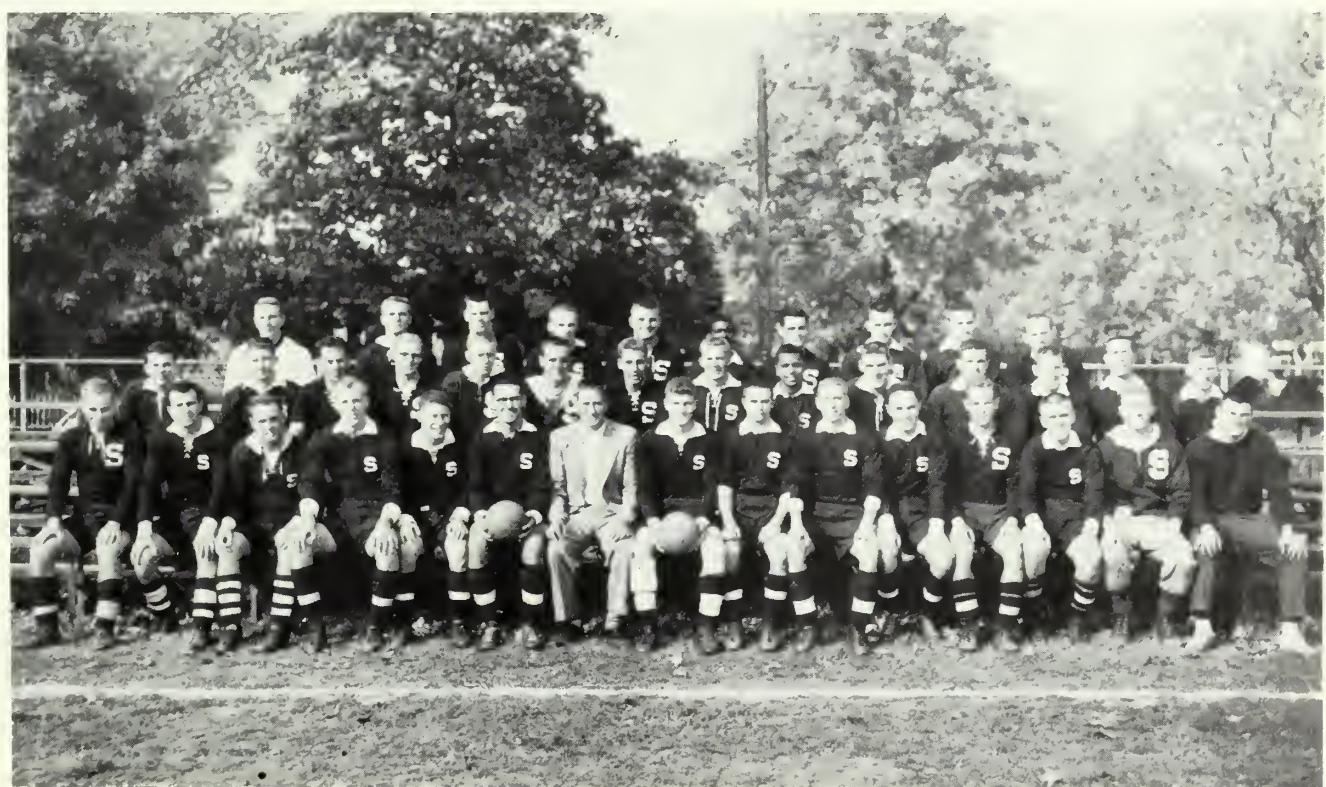

In addition to all this strength in the scoring line, the Schmidmen's strongest asset was expected to be the halfback line. Three veterans, Teixiera, Dan Sullivan, and Don Darling were counted on to lead the Maroon play. As the season started the only untried position was that of goalie, which was filled by Art Kohs.

SEASON

The Maroons opened the season at Hofstra and blanked the Flying Dutchmen 4-0. Hungerford paced the attack with a pair of goals. Springfield's defense was air-tight as goalie Art Kohs in his first start was called on to make just one save.

Coach Schmid's booters then proceeded to register three more shutouts, conquering Boston University, Wesleyan, and R.P.I. in that order.

Maroons on the move . . .

Yale was the first team to dent the Springfield nets, but the Maroons downed the Elis for their fifth straight win. Hungerford next went on a scoring spree and booted in four goals as the Alden Streeters stopped M.I.T. 4-1 for win number six.

With six consecutive wins under their belts the Maroons traveled to Williamstown to meet their old nemesis, the Ephs. The Ephmen were out to upset the Maroons again, but Springfield eked out a 2-1 victory to keep their record intact. Al Dyson and Lance Saidak scored the two important SC goals.

The Springfielders then conquered Connecticut 4-1 and returned home to meet Bridgeport in a make-up contest.

With only Bridgeport between them and the New England crown, the Schmid booters proceeded to down the visitors 3-0 and finish the season with a perfect 9-0 slate.

On January 10, 1958 the Maroons were voted soccer co-champions of the United States with CCNY. This is Springfield's third national title in ten years.

The starting lineup for the champions was goalie, Art Kohs; fullbacks, Rudy Wurtemburger and Terry Jackson; halfbacks, Joe Teixiera, Don Darling, and Dan Sullivan. The forward line spots were filled by Jack Loew, Al Dyson, Scotty Wilson, Lance Saidak, and Sam Kasinathan. Bob Corlett, Don Perkins, Al Ehnstrom, and George Crowe made up the bulk of the bench strength.

Individually Springfield booters gained many laurels. Senior half-back Dan Sullivan was chosen to be on the All-American squad. Center forward Dick Hungerford, who tallied 28 goals in the past two seasons, was chosen on the All-New England Team along with Sullivan. Sophomore fullback Terry Jackson placed on the second NE squad and Saidak and Teixeira received honorable mention.

The Maroon defense was outstanding, having only five goals scored against them all season, and posting five shutouts. Offensively the Schmidmen tallied 32 times.

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Vern Cox's varsity hill and daleers once again experienced a rather dismal season. The Maroon runners went through their second consecutive season without winning a dual meet. Again this past autumn the Springfield schedule was packed with such annual powerhouses as UConn, UMass, Maine, and Rhode Island.

Captain Fred Carter, Frank Reuter, and Bill Richards, the returning lettermen, were hampered with injuries throughout the season. The one bright spot in the harrier season was the steady improvement of sophomores Don Kilgras and Ken Meyer.

Coach Steitz, Captain Karanda

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

OUTLOOK

Opening his second season as varsity hoop mentor, Coach Steitz could welcome back only two veterans, captain Tom Karanda and junior guard Al Byrne.

Once again the Maroon squad lacked height and would have to rely on speed and condition. Bill Sullivan nailed down one forward position and sophomore Bob Weickel started in the other forward spot.

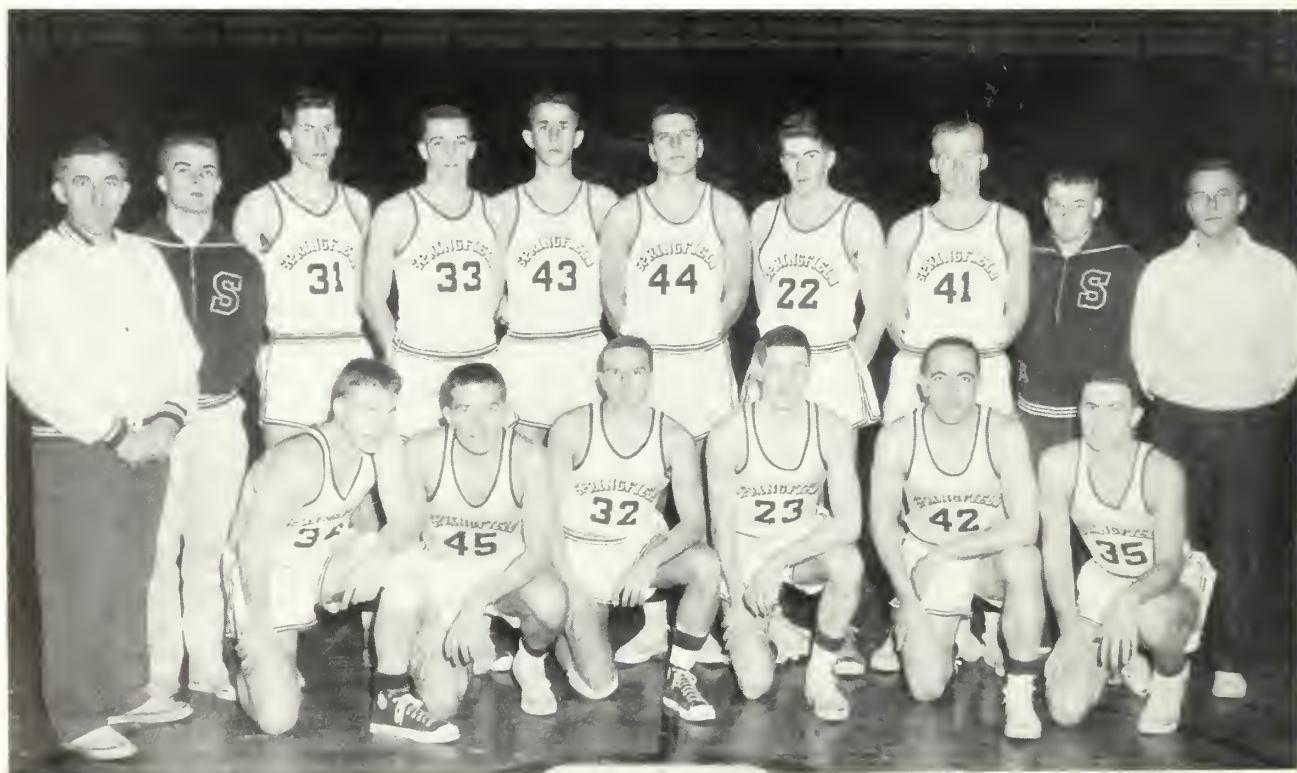

Karanda, slated to start at center, with Byrne and Ed Taylor in the backcourt made up the starting line-up.

SEASON

Springfield opened a 25 game schedule against M.I.T. at the Field House December 2. Sub Bob Garvey provided the spark as the Maroons edged the Engineers 68-67. The Steitzmen then split the next two games, defeating Northeastern and losing to Yale with Sullivan leading the scorers.

Continuing to play on the road, the Maroons lost the next four games before edging New Hampshire in a holiday tournament. Springfield then returned to the Field House and beat Upsala 69-66. A loss to Providence at Rhode Island brought their season's total to 4-6.

Returning to the Field House the Maroons caught fire and ripped off six straight wins. The Maroon and White hit its peak against Western Massachusetts rivals U. Mass and Amherst. Sullivan, Garvey, and McCullough paced SC to a 82-69 win over the Redmen and a 85-62 victory over the Jeffs.

Williams stopped Springfield's victory streak at Williamstown with a 56-55 win. The Steitz forces bounced back as they swept two games in Vermont by dumping Middlebury and Norwich. At Brandeis, Springfield ended the four game road jaunt with a loss to the once-beaten Judges 83-74.

The squad extended the home win record to nine games by beating Tufts; then A.I.C. upset the apple cart by defeating the Maroons at the Field House 85-80. Powerful Providence edged the Steitzmen 63-59 on Homecoming weekend to bring the season to a close with a 13-9 record.

VARSITY SWIMMING TEAM

OUTLOOK

Added strength from the '57 frosh team's free-style racers gave the Springfield swim squad what appeared to be its best balanced SC team in the past few years. The mermen, under the guidance of Coach Charles "Red" Silvia, boasted a roster of veterans led by co-captains Dick MacDonald and Bruce Kurtz.

Also returning to McCurdy Natatorium for varsity action were juniors Jon Owen and Bill Lawson, the New England diving champion. Seniors Dave Clark and Murph Davis, competing in the freestyle and breaststroke events respectively, were expected to give the Silviamen adequate depth.

Newcomers hoped to give the Maroons a lift were Roger Nekton, Dave Carrington and Paul Cianci. In Nekton, Coach Silvia hoped to gain a much needed distance freestyler. Cianci's specialty was the breaststroke and Carrington teamed up with Kurtz to give SC a one-two punch in the backstroke event.

Despite the return of an experienced team, Springfield's chances were not too hot for a good win and loss record. They faced such powerhouses as Dartmouth, Brown, Williams, and Yale.

SEASON

Springfield's mermen opened the season by upsetting Dartmouth 47-39, the first time in ten years the Maroons have defeated the Big Green. Nekton, Kurtz, Lawson, and Cianci grabbed first places for SC. The locals won the contest in the final event when Dartmouth's relay team was disqualified for an illegal turn.

Junior Jon Owen set a N.E. butterfly mark to lead the Silviamen to a 55-31 win over Trinity. Nekton, Bob Ballou and Kurtz were first place finishers.

The Maroons took to the road and suffered lopsided losses at the hands of Harvard and Brown. The Crimson took every first place except one and trounced Springfield 65-21. Brown, in the middle of a winning streak, downed the visiting squad 52-34.

Smarting from these two losses the Mermen returned home and overpowered Holy Cross 71-15. Senior Clark registered firsts in the 50 yard and 100 yard freestyle races to pace the winners as Springfield swept every event but the final relay. Dick MacDonald, Lawson, Owen, Carrington, and Cianci were winners for the locals.

The Springfielders then traveled to Williamstown for a meet with Williams. The Ephs upset the visitors 47-39, grabbing the win in the final relay.

Homecoming weekend found the Maroons meeting Connecticut at the Springfield pool. Once again the final relay cost the home team a chance to win as the Huskies tied SC 43-43. First places by Owen, Lawson, Nekton, and Cianci contributed to the victory.

With two meets remaining the Springfielders had split seven contests, winning three, losing three and tying one. The final meets before the New Englands were against M.I.T. and undefeated Yale. Seniors making their final varsity splashes were Kurtz, MacDonald, Davis, Clark, Hal Miller and Fred Breckwoldt.

HISTORY

Although gymnastics at Springfield College got its start back in 1891-92, it was not until 1904-5 that an organized team with a coach, team captain, and manager brought about the birth of the present-day Gymnastic Exhibition Team. Due to the fact that the college was closed for three years during the war, the 1957-58 team has the distinction of being the "Golden Jubilee" group.

In 1900 four students with experience and interest in gymnastics came to Springfield College from Cleveland, Ohio, and demonstrated their skills at various campus functions. Others soon became interested and the small group began putting on exhibitions in neighboring communities as well as on the SC campus.

Under Coach Leslie J. Judd the Exhibition Team attained international fame. The team traveled throughout Mexico in 1952, and has since made extensive exhibition tours throughout sections of the country each year.

Coach Judd also created the statuesque tableaux which have received wide recognition and have become the trademark of the Exhibition Team.

Under their present coach, Frank Wolcott, the team has also successfully entered competitive gymnastics.

Four competitive gym meets were scheduled for the '57-'58 season along with the regular exhibition programs. The Wolcottmen faced Temple, Syracuse, West Point, and Massachusetts.

For their first dual meet the Maroons traveled to Philadelphia to face Temple and edged the Owls 50-46. Four days later the locals played host to a small but potent Syracuse squad. Senior Dick Peterson captured firsts in the side horse, horizontal bar and flying rings to pace the Wolcott crew to a 51-45 victory.

Journeying to West Point the Springfields were handed their first loss by a powerful Army combine. The Black Knights outscored the visitors in every event except the parallel bars to gain a 67½-28½ victory. Co-captain Dick Aranson and Joe Dorsey grabbed second places to lead SC scorers.

The gymnasts closed out the competitive season with win number three by drubbing U. Mass 65-31 at Amherst.

Leading point-scorers for the Maroons during the season were Peterson, Aranson, Dorsey, Tom Flubacher, Joe Fodero, and Ernie Furblur. The gymnasts finished the season with a 3-1 mark.

OUTLOOK

With three New England champions returning to action, Coach Doug Parker's mat squad appeared headed for another banner season. Co-captains Vic Lewin and Wil Chassey headed the roster of veteran grapplers, which included N.E. crown holders Lewin, Dick Dickey, and Burt Burger.

When the season started the line-up was 123 lb.

SEASON

Defending their New England crown, the Springfield grapplers opened the season against Brown University at Rhode Island. After beating the Rhode Islanders 19-9, the Parkermen made an impressive Field House debut by trampling MIT 34-0, which gave them a 2-0 record at the Christmas break.

When the Parkermen returned to begin the new year, they received a severe setback. Co-captain Vic Lewin suffered a fractured leg in an automobile accident. The SC matmen nevertheless continued their winning ways. Pins by Burger and DiMuccio paved the way to a 19-9 win over Williams. Springfield stretched its winning streak to four by edging Yale 14-13. Decisions by Al Stubblebine, Chassey, Burger and DiMuccio provided the win over the Elis.

Campana and Chassey scored pins as the Maroons belted Wesleyan 26-8 for win number five. The Parker crew had little trouble in beating Amherst 33-2. Dickey, Burger, and DiMuccio all won by falls in a lopsided victory.

Once again, Franklin and Marshall proved the thorn in Springfield's plans for an undefeated season. The Diplomats downed the Springfielders 20-10 at the Field House. Reuter and DiMuccio were the only SC grapplers to register wins over the Pennsylvanians. The Parkermen bounced back to gain their seventh win by trouncing Hofstra 22-8.

One of the East's most powerful wrestling combines, the Black Knights of Army, provided the competition for the Winter Homecoming weekend. The Cadets lived up to their press clippings and routed the Maroons 22-6. Burger captured the 157 lb. match for Springfield and DiMuccio gained a 1-0 win in the 177 lb. class.

The Maroons tuned up for the defense of their N.E. championship by closing the season against Harvard and Dartmouth. Despite the losses to F & M and West Point, the Springfielders remained undefeated in New England competition. Juniors Dickey, Reuter, and Burger continued their winning ways. Co-captain Wil Chassey became one of Springfield's most improved wrestlers. Sophomore DiMuccio proved to be one of area's top performers, and Campana looked impressive in his first year of varsity competition. With this array of stars the Maroons should prove to be the team to beat in the New England competition.

Varsity volleyball returned to Springfield College this year after a six year absence. Coach Robert Laveaga directed the Maroons through a schedule of dual meets and tournament play.

Volleyball, a recent addition to the 1960 Olympic Games, was originally invented by William Morgan, a former Springfield College student. While teaching at Holyoke, Morgan searched for a game that was not too strenuous and could be played by older men as a substitute for basketball. The result was a game in which the players batted a basketball back and forth over a net. It was later named volleyball by Dr. Alfred Holstead, a faculty member at SC.

Due to the lack of college squads the local volleyball hopefuls were forced to schedule many YMCA teams rather than facing regular college rivals. The first volleyball game in six years on campus took place against the Southbridge YMCA. The Maroons won easily, beating the visitors 15-6, 15-6, 15-13.

The volleyballers then defeated New Britain and Torrington YMCA's, taking two out of three games from each team. West Hartford YMCA provided the next competition. The Maroons won 15-11 to extend their winning streak to three games. The following two games were against the Holyoke YMCA, and Springfield won both matches by taking a two-out-of-three series.

The Pittsfield "Y" team dealt the netmen their first loss, sweeping a two game match 15-12 and 17-15. Springfield then bounced back and tied New Britain. Homecoming day found the Springfielders meeting a strong Schenectady six. The Maroons downed the Schenectady "B" squad but fell prey to the Visiting "A" team. The split gave the Maroons seven wins, two losses and a tie with only two New York state tournaments left on the schedule.

The two New York tournaments should provide Coach Laveaga's crew with their best competition of the season.

* Play offs — Pynchon Park

Is it a hit or a miss?

SEASON

Returning from their Southern trip, Springfield had a 2-2 record, but before the opener against Amherst, Coach Allen had molded a well-balanced lineup having power on both sides of the plate. The right-handed mound corps consisted of Dave Martens, Bill Busching, Emil Willis, Bill Sullivan, and Don Perkins.

Captain Ed Bilik guarded the hot corner and batted in the clean up slot. Sophomore Dick Heisler and transfer Norm James teamed up for the double play combo while senior slugger Bob Litchard nailed down the initial sack. Bob Payne and George Matola shared the catching duties.

N.C.A.A. PLAYOFFS

May 31 (first game) Springfield 9 — Connecticut 4

Coach Allen called on Bill Sullivan to pitch, and the sophomore right hander gained his fifth win of the year. Litchard and Chick Johnson paced the batting attack in the Maroon victory.

May 31 (second game) Springfield 3 — Connecticut 4

UConn behind Wedin, held the Aldenstreeters scoreless until the ninth when they knotted the score at 3-3. Martens, whose single had tied the game, could not hold the Huskies when his backing failed on two double play balls.

June 1 (third game) Springfield 0 — Connecticut 5

Bill Risley, whom the Maroons had knocked from the box the night before, returned to haunt them and hurled shut-out ball. Busching pitched well, but tired in the seventh and eighth, yielding four runs.

First baseman Litchard led the team in hitting with a .362 mark, and in RBI's with 20. Wilson with a .342 batting average, and Bilik with .280 and 17 runs batted-in, were the leaders at the plate. Heisler and Mendez each swiped 12 bases to lead in that department. Pitchers Martens and Sullivan each won five games.

OUTLOOK

Coach Vern Cox's '57 cinder squad once again faced a strong seven game schedule. With an excess of talent returning, the Maroons appeared headed for a winning season.

Chief reason for high hopes was the power and depth the Cox clan held in the field events. Versatile Andy Thompson, before the season ended, set a Springfield scoring record with a total of 126½ points. Returning service veteran Ed Taylor added depth, and Jon Ventres and Tom Flubacher gave the Maroons a solid high jump squad.

In the dashes, Springfield had 100-yard dash record-holder Jack Baskerville returning along with speedy Frank Leftwich. Co-captain Warren Lutes and Jim White gave the Springfielders a solid one-two punch in the middle distances. Once again the weakness of the Cox crew appeared to be the long distance races. Thompson, Dick Bove, and Art Stultz made the pole vaulters a strong threat. Taylor and George Crowe provided the discus punch and Thompson, Walt Borodunovich and Ray Doyle gave the Maroons a solid shot-put trio.

EASTERNs

At the Eastern Intercollegiate Championships the Maroons captured second place in the class B division. Again Thompson paced Springfield in field events as the lanky senior captured firsts in the pole vault and hammer, and the runner-up spot in the javelin and shotput. Taylor grabbed top honors in the discus and javelin throws. Moore and Flubacher finished one-two in the high jump and Ventres scored a second in the high hurdles.

NEW ENGLANDS

Thompson set Springfield's pole vault record with a thirteen foot performance only to finish second in the event. This was typical of the strong competition the Maroons faced as they captured a fifth place in the N.E. competition. Co-captain Moore won first place in the high jump, and Thompson and Taylor finished one-two again in the javelin throw.

OUTLOOK

When Coach Kiddess assembled Springfield's 1957 tennis squad, he found a surplus of veterans plus strong candidates from the '56 freshman squad. Co-captains Bill Summers and Dud Bell, and juniors Wes Aldrich and John Leonard led a host of veteran netmen. Top sophomore performers Joe Walsh and Bill Vaughn bolstered the Maroons, and the Kiddessmen appeared to be headed for a top-flight season.

SEASON

Aldrich played in the number one spot in singles competition, co-captain Summers held the second spot and Walsh served from the third spot. Co-captain Bell, Vaughn, and Leonard completed the singles positions in that order. In doubles matches Coach Kiddess sent Aldrich and Summers, Bell and Skip Bowditch, and Vaughn and Walsh against the competition.

The Maroon racquetmen opened their slate with a 4-1 triumph over Fort Devens. Then the squad defeated a strong U. Mass team 7-2. The local netters rolled on undefeated with shutouts over UConn and Rhode Island. Trinity, A.I.C., and Hamilton Standard fell before the Maroons were upset by a strong Wesleyan team 2-7. The Maroon and White again defeated Fort Devens before gaining sixth place in the New Englands. The Kiddessmen closed the season with an 8-1 record.

In the past two years many hours have been spent in improving the status of the cheering squad and in improving the squad itself. Now it is felt that this goal has almost been achieved.

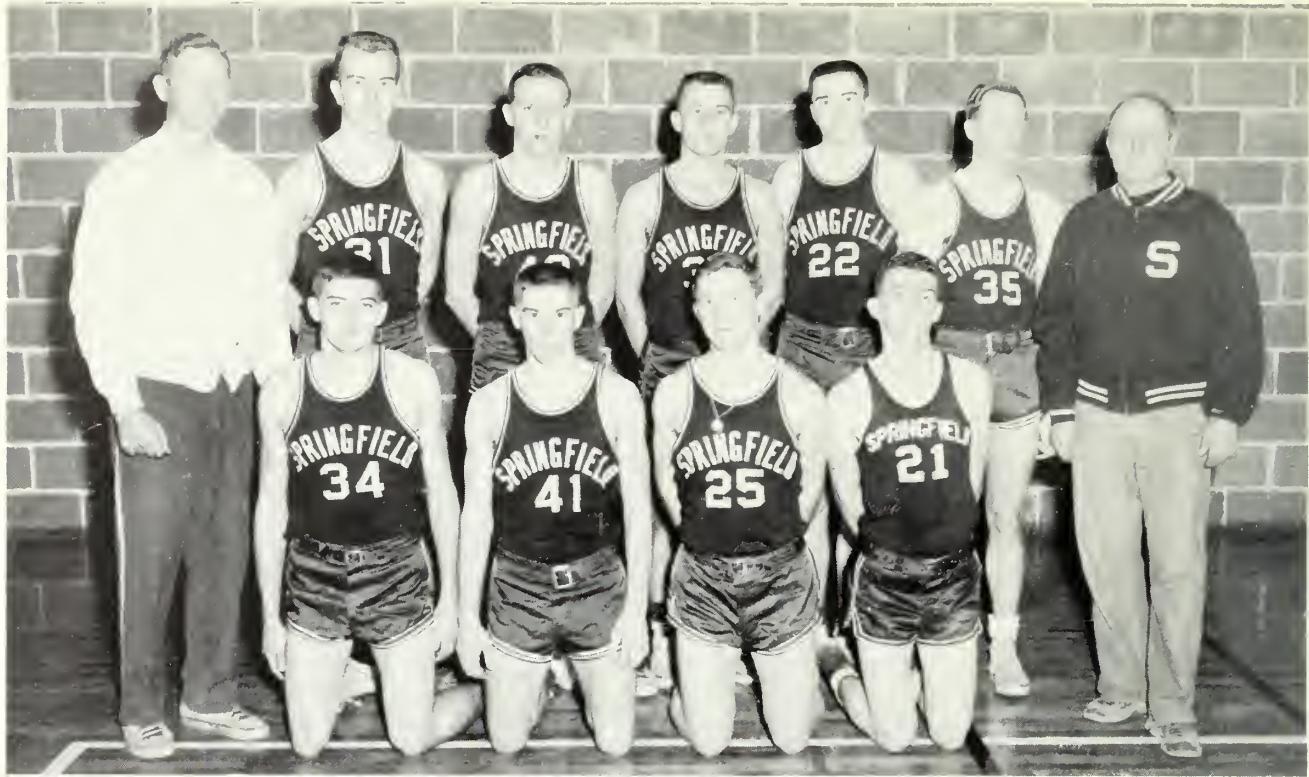

At the present time, the cheerleaders are under no specific club or organization but are working toward the ultimate goal of becoming a club on their own. Student Council has aided in the promotion of the cheerleaders.

Cheering at varsity football and basketball games plus participating in other school activities are the major roles of the cheerleaders. The sponsorship of an annual cheerleaders' clinic has been an activity that the SC cheerleaders have engaged in to improve cheerleading throughout New England.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

One of the highest scoring teams in SC history developed in the 1958 junior varsity quintet. The Vern Cox coached aggregation gained a 5-3 record, winning their last five games in a row.

The junior Maroons opened the season losing to Worcester Junior College 78-69. Holyoke Junior College split a pair of games with the locals losing the first one 79-71 and winning the second 69-42. A powerful Quonset Naval Base dealt the jayveers loss number three to the tune of a 72-66 score.

Against Leicester Junior College the Maroon squad started to click as they won 89-65. In the next game against Hampden School of Pharmacy Steve Holmes and Lee Roberts combined to score 52 points. Springfield set a new Field House record, scoring 133 points.

Joe Gilbo led the way with 18 points and the JV's continued their winning ways by beating Maine 82-68. They captured win number five by defeating Hampden 77-54. Art Kohs and Bob Cookley were the high scorers for the season. Other leading performers were Gibbs, Holmes, and Dick Towey.

Under the guidance of Walter Smith, Springfield's junior grapplers competed in five dual meets. Their competition included a prep school, a varsity squad, and junior varsity opponents. This year marked the second year SC has fielded a J.V. team.

The Little Maroons opened the season by edging the University of Massachusetts 17-13. Connecticut's jayvees dealt Springfield its first loss 16-12. The squad then journeyed to West Point to meet a strong Army brigade. Frank Reuter and Chuck Haney were the only Maroons to win as the Cadets overpowered SC 21-10.

Phillips Exeter Academy dealt the junior Maroons a crushing 66-16 defeat. The large score was due to a new scoring system used by the prep school. The final match was against Boston University.

Among the top wrestlers for the Maroons were Wayne Greenlaw, Milt Tesar, Dan Smith, and George Mercer. Jim McGettigan, Bill Babcock, DeLorenzo, Haney, and Reuter appeared in some varsity matches in addition to seeing J.V. service.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

Jayvee baseballers under the guidance of Bill Edwards played a schedule of six home games. The junior Maroons compiled a 4-2 record against service teams, a junior college, and another college nine. The strength of the Edwards' coached nine was a strong infield and strong hitting attack.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL TEAM

Freshman football scheduling suffered greatly due to the flu epidemic and was limited to a pair of games. Coach Archie Allen's eleven faced a powerful Harvard eleven at home and journeyed to Amherst for their other contest.

The L'il Maroon gridders began their season against Harvard, the opening event of the Parents' Weekend activities. Despite a light rain which resulted in a muddy and water-logged Pratt Field, the Maroon yearlings showed some flashes of offense even though they were beaten 33-0. The visiting Crimson scored in every period to gain an easy win over the Allenmen. Harvey Gusler and Ed Redman sparked for the losing forces.

The final game of the reduced schedule was played at Amherst where the Jeffs edged out the visiting Springfielders 6-0. A 90 yard pass play from Mal Douthright to Walt Bubien in the second quarter was nullified by an offside penalty and cost the Allen forces at least a chance to tie. Amherst scored its only touchdown on a 60 yard pass play in the same quarter. Another Springfield drive was stalled on the 11 yard line in the final period. Douthright's passing made him the offensive star for Springfield.

Coach Tony Hopkins' freshman booters broke even in a five game schedule of strong competition, winning two, losing two, and playing to a scoreless tie.

The squad opened the season by blanking Mount Hermon 3-0. Star goalie Joe Schuhwerk's defensive work in the game was a determining factor in the opening victory.

Win number two came when the Maroon yearlings bested R.P.I. 2-1. This was the first SC freshman win over the Engineers in their three years of competition. Dennis Dewrance opened the SC scoring in the first period and Ron Roberts added the second goal in the next quarter. The star of the game was again goalie Schuhwerk, aided by fullback Don Dinunzio.

UConn stopped the L'il Maroons' win streak as they fought to a 0-0 tie in a double overtime. The frosh were handed loss number one by Trinity to the tune of 4-2. The final game of the season was against Wesleyan and the Hopkins crew were edged 2-1 by the Wesleyan Cardinals.

Offensive stars throughout the season were Howard Spaeth and Roberts. Goalie Schuhwerk was outstanding between the pipes while Dinunzio played good defensive soccer for Springfield Eleven.

Captain Phil Walken, 1956 Maine Prep School champ Roger Maloney, and ex-Mt. Hermon harrier Dave Williams were the trio of frosh who were out in front most often. Kevin Conden, Larry Harbeson, Gordon Merten, and George Wheeler rounded out the freshman team.

At this writing the L'il Maroons of the class of 1961 are riding along on the wings of an undefeated season. Heralded as the greatest frosh squad in the history of the school, Coach Tony Hopkins' cagers overshadowed their press notices with their court play.

The 1957-58 squad boasted height and speed with talent plus in the likes of Morris Towne, Dick Strong, Chet Slaybough, Butch Merten, Joe DiChiara and Leo Best. Other hoopsters who should provide Coach Ed Steitz with material for his varsity team next year are Bob Lakos, Roger Love, John Barth, and Don Heyliger.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Springfield 72, Providence 61. The Maroon yearlings stopped the Li'l Friars' streak at 30 as Leo Best tossed in 14. Dick Strong contributed 20 while Johnny Egan was held to 18.

Springfield 108, Tufts 61. The frosh cagers broke the freshmen scoring record as they romped to their seventh straight victory.

Springfield 92, Providence 80. Adding insult to injury the Li'l Maroons stopped Providence for the second time before a Homecoming crowd. Slaybough led the scoring with 27 and DiChiara chipped in 25 as the yearlings rolled on to win number 9.

Good varsity prospects were developed as the freshman gymnasts, under the direction of Coach Irv Schmid, completed their season. They performed in four exhibitions at high schools and Y.M.C.A.'s and also held some informal competitive meets against outside competition. Some members of the squad performed at the annual Winter Homecoming Exhibition.

The Li'l Maroon gymnasts executed the same skills, dances, and tableaus during their exhibitions that the varsity exhibition team used in their program.

One of the performers on the team was Jeff Cardinali, who won national honors in high school and is believed to be a prospect for the 1960 Olympic team. Other members of the team considered to be good varsity prospects are E. Pierce Walsh, Bill Kaufman, John Beacham, and Joe Schuhwerk.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING TEAM

Coach Ted Dunn's freshman wrestling squad once again enjoyed a successful season. The grapplers won three, lost two, and battled to a draw. Cliff Heinze wrestling in the 147 weight division, captained the squad.

The frosh opened the season by downing Brown 18-14 at Rhode Island. In their first home match the Dunn wrestlers were beaten by powerful Yale 27-3. Rebounding quickly, the Springfielders trounced Wesleyan 23-9. Captain Heinze and Ed Redman pinned their opponents and Mike Pizar won by a decision to spark the SC win.

The yearlings edged Hofstra 19-13 and then fell before the strong Mount Hermon squad. In the final match of the regular season the frosh matmen tied Harvard 15-15 in an exciting contest at the Field House. John Schaefer wrestling unlimited fought to a draw and gave Springfield the split.

The freshman team competed in the New Englands on March 7-8 copping first place honors.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Carl Samuelson, the 1958 Mermen competed in six meets. Record-wise the yearling swimmers came out on the short end in all six tries, but this record fails to show their potential. The squad produced several good prospects for next year's varsity combine.

Leading freestylers for the L'il Maroons were Lawrence Holt, Robert Swab, and George Porchelli. Steve Bear and Tom Fleck were the top performers in the backstroke and butterfly dolphin events, respectively. Bob McNealy was the leading SC entry in the breaststroke race. John Bennett and Sel Schwartz performed from the low board for the yearlings, and the 200 yard freestyle team consisted of Swab, Holt, Porchelli, and Fleck.

Freshmen initiated a new baseball coach, Emory Seymour, in the 1957 season. Seymour and the yearlings faced a tough ten game slate against prep schools and college freshmen nines. The nucleus of the frosh squad was the southpaw pitching staff: Bill Wade, John Wells, Ron Stearn, and Dave Weeks.

The four left-handers were backed by a right-handed relief staff and a hard-hitting lineup: Joe Gilbo, Dooly Thorpe and Terry Jackson covered the outfield positions; Joe Androvich at third, Dave Jordan at short, Jim Stone at second, and George Blackwell at first guarded the infield; George Jacobs was behind the plate; and key utility man Bob Coakley was available for full-time service. The season highlights were four shutouts:

Springfield 1, U. Mass 0. Lefty Bill Wade made his mound debut an impressive one as he whitewashed the Junior Redmen.

Springfield 3, Trinity 0. Wade continued his winning ways and pitched his second shutout in a row.

Springfield 6, Williams 0. Shutout number three was registered by another lefty, John Wells.

Springfield 2, R.P.I. 0. Ron Stearns continued the southpaw jinx and racked up his second win of the campaign.

FRESHMAN TRACK TEAM

Coach Irv Schmid's 1957 frosh cindermen compiled a .500 season as the yearlings proceeded to shatter records at will. Led by co-captains Tony Torres and Bob Brockway the tracksters competed against top flight prep school and college freshman squads.

Charlie Morrison ran the 220, Jerry Henderson and Bob Husted the 100, while Bill Johnson and Husted were the frosh hurdlers. Co-captain Torres recovered from his pre-season injury to turn in some fast 440's. Ken Meyer and Paul Whitlock ran the mile; Whitlock's specialty was the 2 mile as he broke the frosh record in two outings.

Other record breakers included Jerry Comeau and Joe Woodhead, who both shattered the hammer throw record. Co-captain Brockway provided the depth in the weight events, throwing the javelin and putting the shot. Bill Johnson tried in vain to crack the frosh high jump record on stepping-up day, but succeeded only in tying it on this and other occasions.

As per usual, the winter sports program caused the most interest. The junior wrestling team won the trophy and the "Heffies" captured the basketball crown. George Williamson won the IM foul shooting contest and was also the top scorer in the basketball league. Handball and volleyball tournaments were held.

PARENTS' WEEKEND

Potato salad, sliced ham and cheese, cookies, and coffee were in order for the luncheon served in Abbey Hall.

A chance to meet other parents and enjoy a light buffet lunch while taking a much needed rest . . .

Despite the almost traditional day of rain and the prevalence of Asiatic flu which forced the cancellation of the Brandis-Springfield football game and the Bridgeport-Springfield varsity soccer game; parents, friends and alumni filled the campus and turned the weekend into a great success.

A capacity crowd watched the freshmen soccer team play Connecticut to a scoreless finish, and also enjoyed a first in the history of Springfield College, a women's field hockey game played on Pratt Field.

Dr. George Brooks, professor of English, addressed over five hundred people present at the annual banquet held in the field house.

An informal dance, in the North Gymnasium that night and a worship service Sunday morning concluded the weekend.

ROPE PULL and CAGE BALL

Here are the victorious frosh well on their way to emancipation from the bathersame beanies.

And here are the sophs well on their way into the icy waters of Lake Massasoit and defeat at the hands of the "lawly" frosh.

The Freshman Class through the virtue of might and numbers won the Cage Ball game easily over the Sophomore Class. Officials attempting to referee were Varsity "S" Club members. Chief Massasoit, the trophy, traveled once from the vanquished sophomores to the victors and back to the vanquished sophomore class again through brain power and not brawn. The trophy is still in concealment, and will again appear for the annual Stepping-Up Day ceremonies.

The powerful class of 1961 again overpowered the sophomores in the annual rope pull held at the end of October. With the odds and advantages against them, the frosh pulled the sophs into the bitter, cold depths of Lake Massasoit and were thus freed from the obligation of wearing their beanies for the remainder of the time until Thanksgiving recess.

FALL HOMECOMING

Mrs. Doris Costello, sponsored by the Student Wives, riding on the winner of the float parade. The float was entitled "Woman In A Shoe."

Francis Wood '60, of Arlington, Massachusetts was crowned as the Fall Homecoming Queen at the dance. Miss Wood represented the White Key Society.

Featuring for the second year a float parade of queen candidates which was sponsored by the Student Union, the Fall Homecoming Weekend was well attended by over six hundred alumni.

Sponsored and presented by the Class of 1958 under the direction of Nancy Gary, major events included a variety show conducted by the Class of 1960, a fashion show featuring the eighteen queen candidates as models, senior vs. underclassmen varsity soccer, Springfield vs. New Hampshire varsity football, the float parade and Women's Drill Team presentation at half-time, Mrs. Granat's Smorgasbord, and the "Arabian Night" Homecoming Dance.

Also included as a highlight in the weekend's festivities was the third in a series of conferences on Physical Fitness with demonstrations staged by members of the faculty.

WINTER HOMECOMING

"Southern Serenade" sponsored by the Sophomore class, initiated a new Springfield College tradition, that of snow sculpturing. Blessed with an abundant snowfall in the form of a Nor'easter the weekend before, nine clubs constructed snow images with themes ranging from "Show Boat" to "Southern Comfort." Maroon Key won the plaque with its snow image of "Stonewall Jackson."

Attended by alumni from many parts of the country, the three day weekend included the "Southern Serenade" dance Friday night in the field house; a dance workshop, baseball clinic, swimming for the handicapped workshop, and a special program for alumni in business Saturday morning.

Major sports events Saturday included a varsity wrestling match with Army, freshman and varsity basketball versus Providence, and freshman and varsity swimming versus Connecticut.

A major highlight was the Gymnastic Exhibition Team Show in Municipal Auditorium celebrating its golden jubilee anniversary. A jazz concert Sunday afternoon concluded the southern weekend in fine southern style.

A "Starlit Night" was the climax of an event-filled weekend sponsored and presented by the Class of 1958 under the chairmanship of Lewis Brown.

Miss Adela Ninci, representing the Cosmopolitan Club, reigned as queen of the Junior Prom. Sallie McMillan '59, representing the Student was chosen first attendant and Betty Jean Ottaway, representing the Class of 1960, was the second member of the court. Over two hundred and twenty-five couples were in attendance at the Prom.

Weekend highlights included the Glee Club Concert followed by a block dance, breakfast for the eighteen queen candidates, a jazz concert and open house in the dorms, a Springfield varsity baseball victory over Colby College, victory of the freshman track team over the University of Massachusetts, the Promenade, and a worship service Sunday morning.

WORK DAY

The Student Union receives a good bath . . . Sal wields a wicked broom!

Labarers who signed up for the projects received a lunch at noon and a steak roast was held that evening to quench the vigorous appetites of the hard workers.

With all classes cancelled for the entire day, the traditional Work Day was an overwhelming success. A record-breaking total of three thousand labor hours were contributed by over six hundred students and faculty members.

All over campus improvement was the result of the project as brooms, mops, paint brushes, and shovels flew to aid in the campus face-lifting. Projects included painting downstairs of the Union, making paths behind the women's dorm and by the Student Union, cleaning and painting the radio station, cleaning the lake front and beach at Freshmen Camp, cleaning the beach behind Abbey Hall, and many other paint projects.

STEPPING-UP DAY

Philip Merriman retires the colors of the class of 1957, adding them to the roster of the past classes in the history of Springfield College.

Donald Morshman posses on the peace-pipe, symbol of the sophomore class, to freshman class president Dovid Howes. This signified the end of rivalry between the two classes.

On a warm, sunny afternoon, the entire student body gathered for the annual Stepping-Up Day ceremonies, as the Student Council president took the oath of office and the class presidents each took part in stepping up to the next level of college life.

Although the 1957 MASSASOIT was nowhere in sight, the ceremonies otherwise went according to schedule. Nine seniors were inducted as new members into Kappa Delta Pi, the Honor Society.

For the freshmen this day signified the end of frosh-soph rivalry, and marked the first usage of the hallowed ground of Senior Walk during the mass march by the class of 1960 over the path.

GRADUATION

Faculty and seniors enjoy themselves and the meal of the Commencement Dinner held in the Memorial Field House.

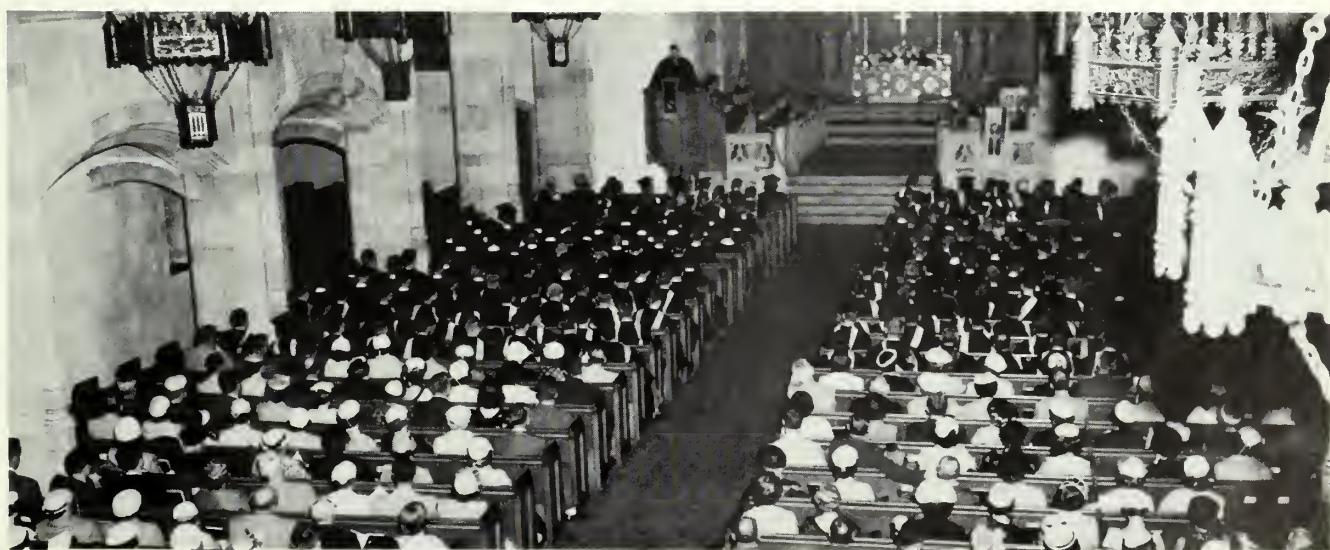

And here are the Seniors anxiously preparing for the procession into the Field House for the Seventy-first Commencement Exercises.

Over two-thousand three hundred people gathered in the field house June 9 to witness the seventy-first commencement excercises of Springfield College. Two-hundred and six students received their Bachelor of Science degrees, while one-hundred and thirty Master and Doctorate degrees were awarded to members of the graduate class. Six honorary degrees were also bestowed.

Weekend activities included an alumni forum and luncheon, a golf tournament, five year reunion dinners of thirteen classes, Baccalaureate Services, the Senior Dance, Alumni-Senior breakfast, a Strawberry Festival, senior faculty baseball game, Commencement Dinner, Alumni Memorial Service and the Commencement Exercises.

Blessed with beautiful weather, the class of 1957 joined the ranks as alumni of Springfield College.

FRESHMAN CAMP

Outdoor cooking is in order in the popular camp-craft program where many "out-of-this-world" creations were made.

Butch Groves appears fascinated by this pup-tent. Or maybe who's inside?

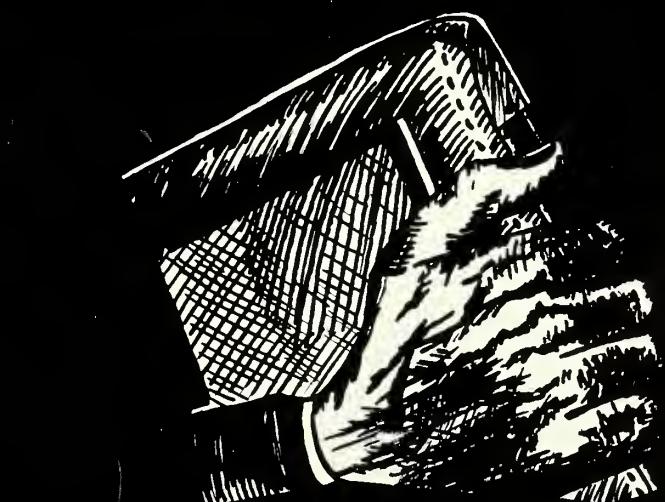

In spite of the high forest-fire danger from the prolonged dry spell, Freshmen Camp swung into operation June 6-15. A total of three-hundred and four campers plus sixty-two staff members participated in one of the best seasons to date and took advantage of ten days of beautiful weather.

Directed by Mr. Stanley W. Stocker, assistant professor of Recreation and Youth Leadership, the campers enjoyed a full schedule of activities and gained valuable experience in group living plus practical instruction in camping program techniques.

Nature, Campcraft, Indian Lore, Waterfront, and Program were the program divisions. Other activities included the Variety Show, Circus Carnival, movies, star-gazing, campfires, and a Hosaga pow-wow.
